1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 There may be occasions when an employee feels aggrieved about their work or conditions of service or the actions or omissions of another employee or the management of the school. Employees should aim to resolve most issues informally with their Line Manager or those involved. Use of this procedure should not replace normal day-to-day dialogue between employees and their Head Teacher/Line Manager.
- 1.2 Where it is not possible to resolve issues informally, an individual employee (or employees) may use this procedure in the case of a grievance against:
- Another employee at the school (Section 4)
 - The Head Teacher (Section 5)
 - The Governing Body (Section 6)
- 1.3 Access to this procedure is excluded in the following circumstances:
- a) Where resolution of the grievance is beyond the power of the school, e.g. the grievance concerns Tax or National Insurance. The employee may need to initially speak to the school's payroll provider and, if not then resolved, seek redress with the appropriate external agency.
 - b) If an attempt is made to restart the grievance procedure in respect of a grievance which has been considered previously, unless the facts of the matter have substantially altered.
 - c) Where there is a failure by the employee to comply with time limits specified in the procedure, unless it has been mutually agreed in advance to vary the time limit(s).
 - d) With issues which should be dealt with under other procedures such as the Pay Policy, sickness absence, right to request to work flexibly, disciplinary or performance except where a right to use the grievance procedure is referred to under those procedures.
 - e) Where the person raising the grievance is not an employee of the school.

2. GRIEVANCES RELATING TO HARASSMENT

The Academy believes that every employee has the right to be treated with dignity and work in an environment free from harassment. It will not tolerate any form of harassment. The Academy will so far as is reasonably practicable ensure that its employees are protected from third party harassment and employees can use this procedure to raise a grievance if any form of harassment should occur. Any differences in how the procedure should be applied in cases of harassment are set out in Appendix A. The definition of harassment used in this procedure (see Appendix A), includes bullying as a form of harassment but it is recognised that many people use the terms interchangeably. Where reference is made to harassment it applies equally to bullying.

3. GENERAL COMMENTS APPLICABLE TO ALL STAGES

- 3.1 Periods of time and deadlines in this document may be varied by mutual agreement of the parties concerned and it should be noted that a satisfactory resolution should not be sacrificed in the pursuit of a particular time limit.
- 3.2 An employee may withdraw their grievance at any stage by confirming this in writing to management.
- 3.3 Confidentiality will be maintained throughout the process wherever possible but there may be circumstances where this is not possible in order to progress the grievance.
- 3.4 All formal stages in this procedure should be initiated by:
 - The employee completing the Statement of Grievance Form (Appendix C).
 - Receipt of the Statement of Grievance by Head Teacher and/or Chair of Governors/Clerk to Governors (see appropriate section).
- 3.5 The law may recognise complaints raised under other formats as a grievance. Therefore, the Academy may consider the intention behind criticism or complaints raised in other ways, e.g. by letter, to ensure they are dealt with under this procedure if appropriate. Where it is established that the employee wishes to pursue a formal grievance they should complete the Statement of Grievance Form.
- 3.6 Special arrangements and requests for reasonable adjustments will be considered to accommodate needs arising from a disability.
- 3.7 For shared grievances where a number of employees are similarly aggrieved, the group may identify an individual or a trade union representative to take the group grievance forward on their behalf.
- 3.8 Audio or visual recorders may not be used to record the hearing as they may inhibit the flow of proceedings. The employee and their representative may make notes as they wish during the meeting but there is no obligation to provide transcript notes of the meeting taken by management or other representative present, other than the written confirmation of the outcome.
- 3.9 If it is not possible to respond in the specified time period, the employee will be given an explanation for the delay and be told when a response can be expected.
- 3.10 The employee has the right to be accompanied at formal grievance meetings/hearings by a trade union representative or colleague who may present at the grievance on their behalf. The person against whom the grievance has been raised may also be accompanied by a representative. In cases of grievance relating to harassment, the alleged harasser has the right to be accompanied/represented.
- 3.11 It is the employee's responsibility to confirm the attendance of their chosen representative or colleague.
- 3.12 Local Authority Children's Services Human Resources Advisers may be available to give advice on the process.
- 3.13 If a grievance is found to be malicious this may result in disciplinary action being taken against the employee.

4. GRIEVANCE AGAINST AN INDIVIDUAL EMPLOYEE

Informal Discussion

- 4.1 An employee who has raised a verbal grievance can agree to discuss the matter initially with the employee against whom he/she is aggrieved. If the employee feels unable or unwilling to do this they should raise the matter with their immediate Line Manager, or with the Head Teacher if the grievance concerns their Line Manager, (see Section 5 for instances where grievance is against a Head Teacher).
- 4.2 The Line Manager should explore the employee's concerns with him/her and where possible, reach an agreement on how to move forward. If such action has failed to resolve the grievance, the aggrieved employee may wish to raise a formal grievance.
- 4.3 Where a grievance is submitted in writing, consideration should still be given to whether it can be resolved informally before using the formal procedure.

Formal Procedure

- 4.4 Where an employee wishes to pursue a grievance formally, he/she must report the matter to the Head Teacher (see Section 5 if grievance is against Head Teacher) by presenting him/her with a completed Statement of Grievance Form (see Appendix C). Following receipt of the Statement of Grievance Form the Head Teacher will provide a copy of it to the person/s against whom the Grievance has been raised.

At this point, the Head Teacher may need to establish facts or clarify issues contained in the grievance statement. Such enquiries may take the form of an investigation depending on the complexity or seriousness of the grievance.

Formal Grievance Meeting

- 4.5 The Head Teacher will hold a meeting within 10 working days inviting both parties to that meeting. The purpose of the meeting shall be to attempt to resolve the grievance. The meeting should take place at a time and place reasonable for all parties. All parties must take reasonable steps to attend the meeting. See Appendix D for the procedure relating to a formal grievance meeting.
- 4.6 Unless mutually agreed otherwise, or unless exceptional circumstances apply, any papers to be used during the meeting must be made available by both parties to each other at least 5 working days in advance of the meeting. Following the exchange of such papers, it may be appropriate for the Head Teacher to investigate any matters raised in order to facilitate the running of the subsequent grievance meeting.
- 4.7 At the Formal Grievance Meeting the Head Teacher will see both parties together unless he/she deems it more likely to assist a resolution for them to be seen separately. The Head Teacher will listen to the grievance and any response and may ask such questions as he/she deems fit. The Head Teacher may also decide to adjourn the meeting if it is necessary to investigate any new facts which arise.

- 4.8 The Head Teacher will give his/her opinion on the matter including details of any action to resolve the grievance. This may be in writing or verbally at the meeting followed by written confirmation. The written decision will be sent to both parties not more than 5 working days following the meeting.

Right to Appeal

The written decision of the Head Teacher must detail the right of appeal, to whom to make an appeal and by what deadline.

Formal Grievance Appeal

- 4.9 Where the aggrieved employee does not consider that his/her grievance has been resolved he/she may appeal in writing to the Clerk to the Governors within 10 working days of receipt of the decision, stating the reasons for the appeal. This notification should be made by completing Part 2 of the Statement of Grievance Form and must be copied to the Head Teacher. Grounds for appeal should normally relate to one or more of the following:

- That there was a procedural error.
- New evidence has emerged which was not available at the grievance meeting.
- That the conclusion reached by the Head Teacher was unreasonable.

This notification should be made by completing Part 2 of the Statement of Grievance Form and must be copied to the Head Teacher.

- 4.10 Upon receipt of such notification the Clerk to the Governors will call a meeting of the Grievance Appeal Panel and follow the procedure as laid out below.

Formal Grievance Appeal Panel

- 4.11 In order to allow the hearing of any appeal the Governing Body will establish a Grievance Appeal Panel usually comprising three members.
- 4.12 The panel should meet as soon as is reasonably practicable, normally not more than 15 working days following receipt of the notification.
- 4.13 Unless mutually agreed otherwise, or unless exceptional circumstances apply, any papers to be used during the meeting must be made available at least 5 working days in advance of the meeting. Details of any witnesses to be called by either party must be given at the same time.
- 4.14 The business of the panel will be conducted in accordance with the procedure described in Appendix E.
- 4.15 A written copy of the resolution of the panel will be sent to the parties concerned within 5 working days of the meeting.
- 4.16 There is no further appeal to the Governing Body.

5. GRIEVANCE AGAINST THE HEAD TEACHER

- 5.1 Where the Head Teacher is the subject of the grievance, the same procedure will apply as follows:
- Informal stage – discussion of matter with the Head Teacher
 - Formal procedure – send completed Statement of Grievance to Chair of Governors
 - Formal grievance meeting – held by Chair of Governors (or other nominated Governor)
 - Formal grievance appeal - heard by a panel of the Governing Body.

6. GRIEVANCE AGAINST THE GOVERNING BODY

Informal Stage

- 6.1 Where an employee has a grievance about an act or omission of the Governing Body they shall attempt to resolve the matter with the Chair of Governors (or Governor nominated by him/her) in an informal manner. (The involvement of the Head Teacher, Staff Governor or other appropriate third party may be useful).
- 6.2 Where an attempt at an informal resolution has failed and the employee wishes to pursue the matter, they may request a hearing before the Governing Body by applying to the Clerk to the Governors in writing and providing a Statement of Grievance (Appendix C). A copy of this application must be sent to the Head Teacher.
- 6.3 It is recognised that there may be a delay before a meeting can be held. However, it must be held as soon as is reasonably practicable - normally not more than 20 working days following receipt of the application.
- 6.4 The business of the meeting will be conducted in accordance with the procedure described in Appendix F.
- 6.5 A written copy of the resolution of the Governing Body will be sent to the employee concerned within 5 working days of the meeting.
- 6.6 There is no further right of appeal against this decision.

APPENDIX A: Grievances Relating to Harassment

Definition:

Harassment in relation to employees and applicants is made unlawful by section 40 of the Equality Act 2010. Harassment is defined in the Equality Act 2010 as follows:

A person (A) harasses another (B); if (A) engages in unwanted conduct related to a relevant protected characteristic, and the conduct has the purpose or effect of:

- i. Violating (B)'s dignity, or
- ii. Creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for (B).

Harassment includes unwanted conduct of a sexual nature that has the purpose or effect referred to above, or that is related to gender reassignment or sex, where the victim suffers less favourable treatment because of his or her rejection of, or submission to, that conduct.

In deciding whether conduct has the effect, each of the following must be taken into account:

- i. The perception of (B);
- ii. The other circumstances of the case;
- iii. Whether it is reasonable for the conduct to have that effect.

The Equality Act introduced the concept of "protected characteristics" which are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

Harassment can take the form of either a series of incidents or a one-off act; examples of harassment include:

- Physical contact ranging from touching to assault.
- Verbal and written comments including e-mails, jokes, offensive language, comments about an employee's personal appearance, size, clothing, etc.
- Innuendo, gossip.
- Visible display of offensive photographic or other material or obscene gestures.
- Ignoring or failing to co-operate with others at work or exclusion from work related activities.
- Coercion, e.g. pressure for sexual favours, pressure to participate in political/ religious groups, etc.
- Verbal or physical bullying.
- Cyberbullying, e.g. detrimental comments/images of colleagues on external websites.
- Abuse of position.

The above list is not exhaustive and there will be other examples which are equally unacceptable. It is not always necessary for these activities to actually take place within the workplace (e.g. social events outside work organised by the school) in order to amount to harassment. The individual circumstances relating to each complaint will need to be considered.

Informal Procedure (see para. 4.1)

The complainant asks the alleged harasser to stop the unwanted behaviour. If the complainant is unwilling or unable to do this, he/she raises the matter with his/her line manager/Head Teacher who will meet the alleged harasser.

Formal Procedure (see para. 4.4)

Informal resolution of complaints of harassment should be considered first. If this is not possible, the formal procedure should be used.

The Head Teacher may decide immediately that the case is sufficiently serious to invoke the disciplinary procedure. This may involve suspending the alleged harasser pending an investigation.

1. Investigation

The Head Teacher, or Chair of Governors where the allegation is against the Head Teacher, will conduct a thorough investigation into the allegation of harassment. This should include interviewing/obtaining witness statements from all those concerned. The necessary enquiries should be completed as soon as possible and normally within 10 days.

2. While investigating the complaint, the Head Teacher, or Chair of Governors, should be sensitive to the feelings of the individuals concerned. The complainant may find it difficult and stressful to talk about the incident to a third party. Equally, the person against whom the allegations have been made needs to be assured that the matter has not been pre-judged. The investigation should consider all the circumstances before reaching a conclusion and particularly the perception of the complainant as harassment is often felt differently by different people.

3. Depending on the nature of the complaint, consideration should also be given to the working environment during an investigation. If practicable it may be appropriate to arrange for the complainant and alleged harasser to work apart.

4. Grievance Meeting

On concluding the investigation, the Head Teacher, or Chair of Governors, should invite the employee and the alleged harasser to a grievance meeting as soon as possible. At least 5 days' notice should be given in writing of the date, time and place of the meeting. The invitations (to both the employee and alleged harasser) should confirm the right to be accompanied. If the employee, the alleged harasser or their representatives request an adjournment because they feel they have insufficient time to prepare for the meeting, an alternative date should be offered within 5 days of the original date. A longer extension or adjournment may only be agreed by the Manager convening the meeting in exceptional circumstances.

5. In some cases, due to the nature of the complaint it may be unreasonable to require the two parties to meet. When this occurs alternative means should be found, e.g. working through representatives, to achieve the same end.

6. Outcome

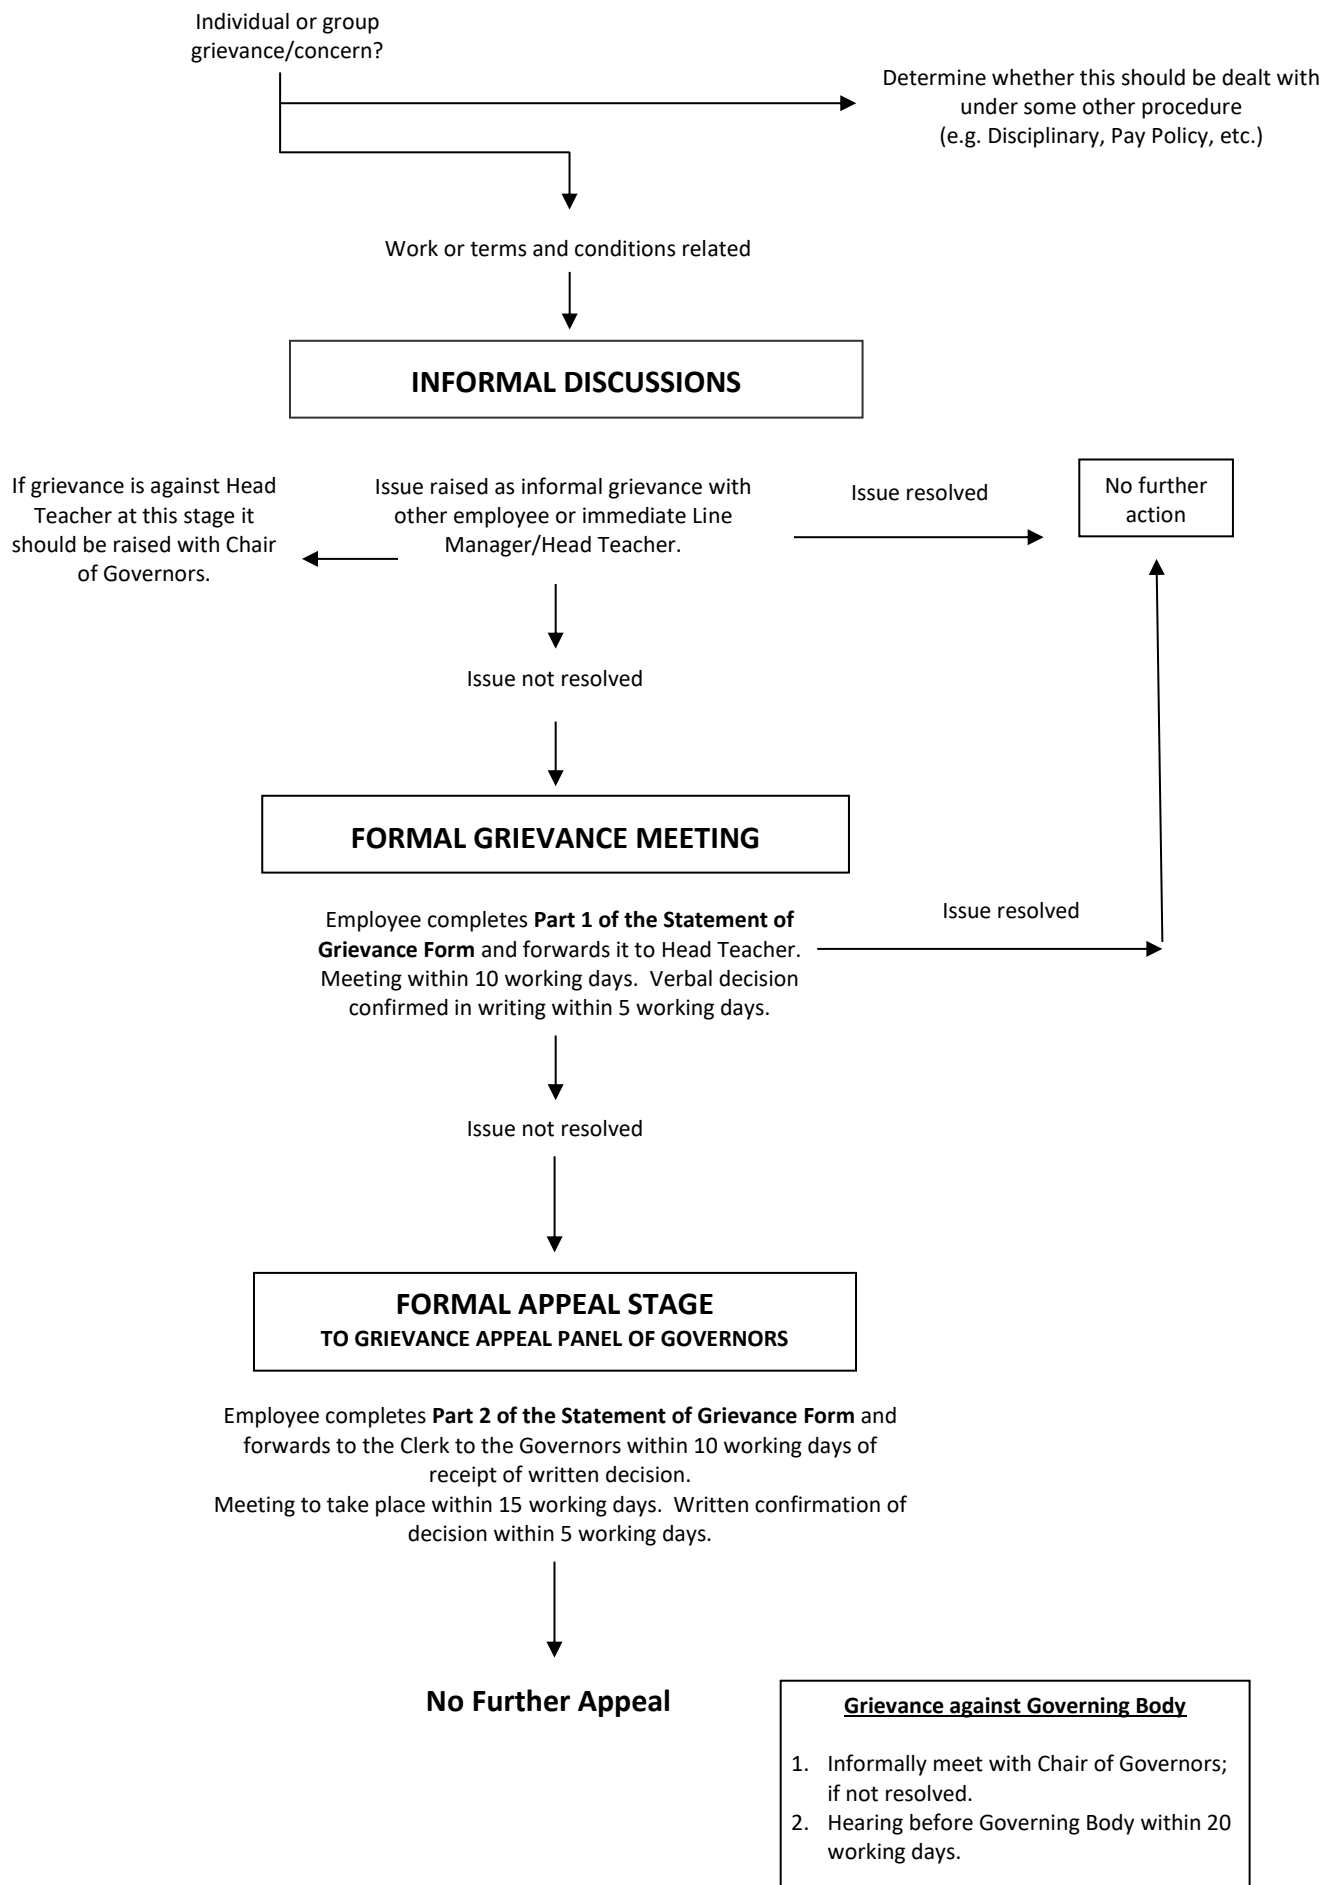

If as a result of the grievance meeting, the Head Teacher, or Chair of Governors, finds that the alleged conduct constitutes harassment, he/she may decide (with appropriate advice from HR) that it should be dealt with under the Disciplinary Procedure.

Where it is found that harassment has occurred, managers must ensure that the harassment stops and that there is no subsequent victimisation.

If it is found that harassment has not occurred and that there has been a malicious accusation, this may result in disciplinary action against the complainant.

7. Disagreement with the decision – if either the complainant or alleged harasser is not satisfied with the decision to uphold or not uphold the complaint, he/she may have recourse to the Governors' Appeal Panel (see para. 4.9)
